Under American Invention.

According to Consul R. S. Bergh, of Gothenburg, its is reported that an English syndicate has lately bought large peat-bog areas near the Boras-Alfresta Rallroad in Sweden. It is said that preliminary arrangements have already been made for the manufacture of peat pasteboard and wrapping paper on a large scale.

The report says further that the new company, in which prominent Swedish business men in London are interested. Will start with a capital of £25,000 ($1,094,082), and has bought an will be cheaper, because it is considered that the Swedish peat is more suitable for this purpose than American peat. It is claimed that it takes only two hours to convert the peat into paper. It is expected that the factory or mill will start operations some time next year.

CROXTON, VA., October 25.—Caroline Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met at Memorial Hall Tuesday afternoon and elected the following delegates to the United Daughters of the Confederacy convention meeting in Norfolk November 6th-16th; Miss Grace Moncure and Miss Clara L. The Treatment.

Mrs. Wilkey was a Christian Scientist, and everybody in the village knew it. The local schoolmaster especially was interested, for he had views on the future of this comely widow, and he wanted to know how he would fare if he managed to persuade her to be his one-and-only.

His opportunity for investigation arrived at last, for one day little Johanio Wilkes, her son, was absent from school, "Were you ill?" asked the teacher, when the boy returned next morning.

"Yes, sir, i was in bed," said the boy, "And what did your mother do for you while you ached in bed?" asked the teacher, all expectancy for the reply.

"Please, sir," said Johanie, "she mended my trousers!"—Tid-Bits.

Heard and Seen in Public Places

Mr. John W. Neal, of Abingdon, one of the most prominent young lawyers and Democratic leaders in Washington county, is in Richmond, and was asked last night as to his opinion concerning the election in his senatorial district this fall.

He said the fight for Senator between Dr. Buchanan, the Democratic nominee, and Senator A. T. Lincoin, the Republican incumbent in the First District, was an intresting one, though he thought the Democratis had enough the best of it to insure Dr. Buchanan's election beyond a reasonable doubt.

"I look upon the election of the Democratic tlicket for members of the House and county officers in Washington as an absolute certainty," said Mr. Neal, "and I do not anticipate any real trouble from a Democratic standpoint concerning the senatorship.

"Dr. Buchanan is a very fine man, and he enjoys the confidence of the people of both Smyth and Washington to a most gratifying degree.

"So far as our end of the district is concerned, we are in pretty good shape, and we are going to send in good returns on the night of the election.

"We have put up a good tleket all down the line, and the men we are running are challenging the confidence of the voters."
